BOOTLEGGER TRIALS
AT SMELTER CITY

DOUGLAS, May 4.—Three cases dismissed. Five bootleggers held to await the action of the superior court and the bail bond of another declared forfeited when he failed to appear for his trial is, in brief, the history of the first day's batch of whiskey cases heard yesterday afternoon before Justice of the Peace R. S. MacLay.

The most interesting event of the day came last, when John McCarthy was dismissed from custody by Judge MacLay on account of a lack of evidence to hold him. This action followed a spirited passage of words between the court and County Attorney J. P. Ross, the prosecuting officer, on the 1st day of June, 1916.

CALLES NO LONGER
MILITARY GOVERNOR

DOUGLAS, May 3.—General P. Elias Calles has been summoned to Mexico City by Venustiano Carranza, head of the de facto government of Mexico, for a conference which will terminate, friends of Calles say, in the present military governor of Sonora being divested of that rank but retained as commander in chief of the military forces in Sonora.

This was learned today when it became definitely known in Mexican official circles that Adolfo de la Huerta, for some time first assistant to the treasury department of Mexico, had been appointed civil governor of Sonora. He is said to be en route to Sonora at this time to take office.

General Calles will leave within the next day or so for El Paso via the United States, it was learned yesterday, intending to join General Alvaro Obregon and accompany him south.

Calles' displacement as governor has been repeatedly denied both by him and other Mexican officials. It was not until this afternoon that a grudging admission was made that there was truth in the rumor which has persisted for several days. At the same time private telegrams from Mexico City to an American mining man confirmed the report. It is now reported in Mexican circles that General Carranza made the appointment of de la Huerta after the departure of General Alvaro Obregon for the border and without the knowledge or consent of the secretary, who has had considerable power in the past in dictating the trend of the Sonora situation.

BOOTLEGGER DID NOT APPEAR FOR HEARING

DOUGLAS, May 4.—The fact that Joe McKinney, one of the men arrested here in connection with County Attorney John F. Ross' crusade against bootleggers, did not appear when his case was called before Justice of the Peace R. S. MacLay this afternoon, led to the report that he had skipped. Friends said, however, that he had gone out in the country in an automobile, and had been unable to return to the city because of an accident to the car.

CARAVAN OF BOOZE
AND BOOTLEGGERS

CONSTABLE PREWITT MAKES BIG
CAPTURE: FOUR AUTO-
MOBILE LOADS

A veritable caravan of booze and prisoners under the command of Constable "Dud" Prewitt, of Bowie, came into Tombstone last evening. There were four automobiles in the party all laden with booze and beer. Five prisoners captured by the ever-watchful Prewitt were in his custody and all but one were safely landed in jail last night, and the entire cargo of contraband lies now safely in the confines of the jail storehouse.

The most exciting event on the long journey from Bowie to Tombstone, happened just as the main section of Tombstone was reached, when one of the cars driven by Earl Lambert, who was under arrest for bootlegging, suddenly blazed away down Allen street toward Tucson, with a carload of Budweiser beer. Constable Prewitt immediately gave chase but was given the slip at the forks of the road just below town, and continued on to Fairbank, where he learned
